The Indian contingent finished with a haul of two Medals at the 2017 Yonex Dutch Junior Open in Haarlem, Netherlands that got over on Sunday. The top-seeded Men's Doubles pair of Krishna Prasad Garaga and Dhruv Kapila had to settle for the Silver while the top-ranked Junior Lakshya Sen clinched a Bronze in Men's Singles.

Garaga and Kapila put up a great fight in the second game but went down to the unseeded Chinese Taipei duo of Su Li Wei and Ye Hong Wei, 13-21, 19-21 in 29 minutes.

Meanwhile, 15-year-old Lakshya Sen's brilliant run came to an end in the Semi-finals of Men's Singles. The top seed did not lose a game en route to the last-four stage but succumbed to a 19-21, 15-21 defeat to the 12th seed Chen Chi Ting, who went on to win the title.

The Almora-born youngster had been in impressive form for the last few weeks and rose to the pinnacle of the junior world rankings last month. Even in the senior circuit, he has made his mark. At the Indian Badminton Nationals in February 2017.
